4. The purchaser should agree to remove the silt in the plot according to the measurements given to a uniform depth without making ditches here and there.

5. The purchaser should agree to pay up the cost of the silt as per cubical contents on allotment of the plot and he will not be permitted to remove the silt unless payment of cost is fully paid for the plot or plots allotted to him.

6. The purchaser should agree to cart the silt between the hours 7-30 A.M. and 11-30 A.M. and from 2-30 P.M. to 5 P.M. every day till he removes the whole quantity of silt.

7. The purchaser should agree to complete the removal of the silt allotted to him within the period to be fixed up at the time of allotment beyond which he will have no claim either for the silt or for the money paid on this account. On no account the money paid for the silt will be refunded. Complaints preferred by the purchasers for removing the silt after the fixed period will not be entertained.

8. The purchaser should agree not to remove the silt collected subsequently in the portion of the plot already removed by him by the water running in the centre of the main drain.

9. The purchaser should inspect the plots of silt before furnishing quotations. Any complaints preferred afterwards will not be entertained.

10. In case of complaints preferred by the purchaser in any other matter not mentioned here, the decision of the Superintendent, Government Gardens, Bangalore, will be final.
